alma mater

Our Alma Mater glorious,
With loving hearts and proud,
We crown thee all victorious
And sing thy praise aloud.
In loyalty we serve thee
And strive to heed thy call,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Through self to conquer all.

You give unfailing kindness
If trouble meet us here;
You foster all our pleasures
And make them seem more dear.
Nor time, nor care, nor sorrow
Can these fair days erase,
But they, with each tomorrow
Help us new tasks to face.

Like breath of Spring's fresh morning
That lifts the heart to song,
When courage droops and wavers
And paths seem gray and long,
Will come thy dauntless spirit
To help us on the way.
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Hold fast thy tender sway.

The changing years may bring us
Some longed for dream of bliss,
Yet memory will cherish
A sympathy we miss.
In hours of joy or sadness,
What'er our need may be,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Thy children turn to thee.

dedication

Love, loyalty, and undying interest are characteristics of our Fair Lady. In reliving the scenes of our college years here, your face will be emblazoned on every mind and every heart for the leading role you have portrayed in "Our Story". For your friendship and devotion to the girls of Mount Vernon, we dedicate the Bell Cote of 1957 to you, Mrs. Merriweather Post.

the directors and producers of our story

the lloyds

No monogrammed chair nor ascot and beret are necessary to reveal the directors of "Our Story". From their home on the hill where all Mount Vernon girls are welcome, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lloyd supervise the setting, lighting, and actions of our college careers. Now and in years to come we shall remember with warmth and appreciation their training and counseling the actors of our small stage for the greater and more difficult stage of life.

CLASS SONG OF THE CLASS OF '57

To the class of '57 we belong,
Let us gather now to sing our song
Of college life—and all that we have seen;
Our motto—and our colors yellow-green.
Our class's strength is shown,
Through days—our unity has grown;
We will stand together through the year.
The memories of days will be so clear,
The fun we shared with friends while we were here.
When our college days are past and gone,
Thoughts of our Mount Vernon linger on.

"A maid of grace and complete majesty."

history of the class of 1957

The Class of 1957 arrived on campus to begin its drama for the next two years on September 19, 1955. The cast's first performance was three weeks later with its Freshmen Varieties Program. A staging of "New Faces Around the World" was given. The Freshmen were then voted off probation and became Juniors. The Junior Class elections were held the following week.

The next major presentation was the Ingenuity Contest between the Junior and Senior Classes; their skits were composed of the following: tableaux—"Love, Death, and the Ladies Drill Team," "Bonjour Tristesse," and "Inherit the Wind"; play, "What's Good for General Motors"; and musical, "When to the sessions of sweet silent thought . . ." The Juniors won the contest, and the Seniors of 1956 gave the Silver Ingenuity Contest Cup to them.

Next on the playbill was the Junior-Senior Banquet, which carried out the theme of "Peter Pan." After final exams of May 30 the stars had an intermission until the second act.

The season began again on September 21, when the entire cast was on stage for the ensuing year. The first function as a class was the party after Varieties. Then came the Ingenuity Contest; this time involving: "A Game of Hot Cockles," tableau; "Six Characters in Search of an Author," pantomime; "Design with String," pantomime; "Let the Punishment Fit the Crime," play; and "Let Them Eat Cake," musical comedy. Again the Class of 1957 won and was presented the Ingenuity Cup, which is on display in the Trophy Cabinet.

The annual May Day Program was given, followed by the long-awaited Capping Ceremony, the Tree Planting Ceremony, and Class Night. The curtain was drawn after final exams and graduation on June 3; after a most successful two-year "hit" at Mount Vernon Junior College a "bon voyage and fair adieu" were bid the Class of 1957!

prophecy of the class of 1957

The stars have finished playing their roles in "our story"; now let us look in on them as they are taking their part on a make-believe stage ten years later. We find, as the curtain opens:

EMMY ALEXANDER is now working on the production of her short story which is a voyage "Around the World In 500 Days In a Dinghy."

NEALY ARMSTRONG has been made a provisional member of the "No Sweat Set" in Bronxville.

KATHY BENSON is starring on the moon in a stage presentation of Poe's Raven.

CONNIE BRAYTON, the wife of a very successful business man, now has two children. Many Mount Vernon graduates of 1957 live in the vicinity and often drop by for a visit while Connie is busy housekeeping.

CATHY BROWN is selling handbags in the bargain basement of a department store.

NINA BRUSELL is married and has two lovely children; she and her family are living in a beautiful home which her husband built for them.

GAYLE CARDWELL is now traveling through Europe with her husband, the Alfred Hitchcock of the new generation.

MARY K. CAROTHERS is still undecided between Texas and North Carolina and which brand she wants.

JANE CARVER is giving cooking demonstrations to young eager brides; she has just been proclaimed "Miss Universe."

PAT CAUSEY is teaching a "long grey line."

CAROL CLEMENTS is waiting hopefully to abandon her humble abode in College Park; it seems her hubby is having a little trouble.

JANICE COBB is working in the county assessor's office in Norman, Oklahoma, and is now sponsoring "Poor Richard's Almanac"; she is part owner of Guilbo's.

JUNE COOK is sketching fashion advertisements for Bergdorf Goodman in New York. She lives in a lovely traditional home in Westchester County and is political boss in control of Tammany Hall.

PATSY CRAYTON is living in Bangor, Maine, "snow bound" for life with Howard, President of IBM; they live in an automatic home with push buttons everywhere, especially for doing the cooking.

Not much is known about KEITH DUNBAR; it is rumored she is still on that African safari with her husband and their two boys. Mr. Lloyd was quite pleased to have received not one but two live and roaring tigers—Mrs. Kinnear is still recuperating!!!

MARY ANNE EDMONDSON has taken over Mrs. Highsaw's position as Government instructor at our old Alma Mater.

SHIRLEY GRITTA is residing on a ranch in Texas with her husband and three children; she is throwing a regular ole western ho-down for her classmates of 1957 in the very near future.

We find SANDRA HALL, a beautiful Southern belle, living on a big plantation and telling her children the unbelievable experiences with the "Chain" gang while attending school in Washington.

Good news just gushed in!!! FRAN HARRIS and her husband are celebrating the birth of their newest arrival—the richest oil field in the world, located on their gigantic ranch in Texas.

NANCY HOLLINGSWORTH, star of the Ice Capades, has just had her tenth child; she is also teaching cooking with Jane Carver.

MARILU SHIPLEY is now residing with her husband, Pete, in Canada; they are building their rambling home in the suburbs of Toronto and are busy socializing with the Eatons and St. Laurents.

MARGIE HUDSON is married and raising a football team!

SUE JOHNSON is singing risque songs at the Met. Afterwards she goes for a little dessert and "night-cap" at Wolfies.

CISSY KATTERJOHN is married and living at a Naval Air Station, besides giving TV commercials for Herbert Levine shoes and running her own kindergarten.

SUSAN KERCKHOFF has just won the Olympic trophy for being the first woman skier to attempt a backward flip off a ski jump. She is also awaiting news from a special friend saying we can go ahead because the first million is in the bag!

KATHERINE McCABE is now happily married with ten children in her pretty white cottage with the red roses entwined around the picket fence. She is well known for her fabulous parties for the international set.

BETSY McINNIS is living in a grass hut in Okinawa.

SISSY MAHON is the toast of the continent and just received the title of "Rembrandt of the 20th century." Her works are on display at the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., and the Louvre, Paris, France.

SYLVIA MARSHALL is still a member of the "No Sweat Set" and has taken over Miss Bridges' position at Mount Vernon Junior College.

BOBBI NUTWELL has gotten married and is the current rage at the Metropolitan Opera.

BERT OWENS still has no earthly idea of what she has done, is doing, or will do.

PATTI PYLE is still trying to get rid of the "Green Dragon"; but her knight in shining armor is coming to her rescue.

DUCKY REDICK is still at the beach sitting under a palm tree soaking up the Southern California sun.

SUSAN ROSS has just opened on Broadway in her first husband's smash hit; spouse number two isn't lasting long either—it looks as if hubby number three, the son of a TV celebrity, is coming up soon.

CELINE SEAY and her husband, a famous flower tycoon, have accumulated additional millions by a phenomenal crossing they've just accomplished with a twenty dollar bill and a cactus plant: result—a money tree.

MARY JANE SEFRIT is rolling in prosperity—raising square turkeys.

MIMI SHIELD is serving as a mechanic in Duckville.

CORRINE SPEARS was last seen stirring up some good homemade brew.

We find CAROLYN SPRUIELL, having ended her teaching career, living with her husband in Tyler—the rose capital of the world.

GRAHAM STONE now has a family of ten; she often rises early as she always loved to do and fixes Hank's breakfast before he makes his way to class.

JOAN TALLEY is working in New York at the Berlitz School of Languages and is teaching Spanish in three dialects.

JEAN TAYLOR hasn't been heard of since that safari into the jungle.

VAL TOGNAZZINI just flew in from Innsbruck where she and Ossi have gone into the photography business together; of course she brought her camera for the occasion.

TUGGIE TRASK is found "pickin' flowers by the hours" on her Southern plantation.

RUTH TRASK is living on a cattle farm and is raising lots of "critters."

FRANNE TYRRELL is residing in Muleshoe, Texas, making her living as an old-maid school teacher.

SUSAN VANDERBIE is president of an airline, vice-president of the Under-Water Basket Weaving Club. She wrote a book called "I Married a Hockey Stick" and is raising one or two future Williams boys.

BOBBI VINCENT is raising future Middies.

CARLEEN VOGEL will probably be dead in another year if she keeps up at the rate she has been going for the past ten years.

JULIE VON SCHRADER has taken her place in the political world and is now serving as president of the League of Women Voters and is holding her meetings at the Unitarian Church in the District.

KACO WALSH now has three sets of twins, all of whom are boys and already tower over their mother.

CHESTER WARNER has just written a book entitled "Travels of Abroad" and has recently taken Ethel Merman's place in "Call Me Madam."

BETSY WATKINS is in Hawaii teaching underwater basket weaving and is flying back to the States every week-end to see her husband, Vic Short, and their two sons.

JANE WEAVER is conducting courses in diplomacy and etiquette for Molotov's grandchildren.

KIM WHEELOCK is still trying to decide between Annapolis and Alcoa; she's so fickle that no one will even be able to predict with whom she'll end up. She's setting the date soon and plans to have six kids.

CAROLE WILLETT is still traveling about the country with her clothes in a U-Haul-It truck, her Hi-fi in the back seat.

JOAN WINGARD is living in an apartment in New York City doing fashion designing and is married to a commercial artist.

the last will and testament of the class of 1957

I, EMMY ALEXANDER, leave my Swiss cheese and Hensley House mice to D-D Willis with hopes that she will have happier hunting than I.

I, NEALY ARMSTRONG, leave my "tweedy" sneakers to anyone who can find them.

I, KATHY BENSON, just leave.

I, CONNIE BRAYTON, leave the Georgetown boys and all the good times with them to Mary Beth Williams; the use of the telephone all night to Jancey Vinsonhaler; and the five-minute drive to Prospect Street and the music of Harry Belafonte to Betty Holt.

I, CATHY BROWN, leave my place in line at the Refectory to anyone not dieting.

I, NINA BRUSELL, leave my scales to my sister, Nicky, and my ability to samba a la Brazil to Cathy Cox.

I, GAYLE CARDWELL, leave those fabulous trips to "Vandy" to Nita Morgan.

I, MARY K. CAROTHERS, leave my empty can of Lone Star to Diane David in hopes that she can keep it filled.

I, JANE CARVER, and I, SUSAN ROSS, leave our ablity to get "snowed in" to any southern freshman who can handle those Yankee snows.

I, PAT CAUSEY, leave my agile(?) feet to Jancey Vinsonhaler and my monkey collection to Sue Rohrer.

I, CAROL CLEMENTS, leave my pack of Salems and my dietetic root beer to Toby Taber.

I, JANICE COBB, leave my pickle jar to Polly Krampf for her roses.

I, JUNE COOK, leave my fond memories of Del Solar Hispanico to Cookie Smith and Jane Robinson.

I, PATSY CRAYTON, leave my derriere to Susan Blocker.

I, KEITH DUNBAR, leave extra cuts from morning classes to Mary Campbell, thus enabling her to sleep a bit more.

I, MARY ANNE EDMONDSON, leave my Government notes and sparkling eye solution to Eleanor Smith whose eyes always have that drab look.

I, SHIRLEY GRITTA, leave the future "Hell Week" at Mount Vernon to Ann Doherty.

I, SANDRA HALL, leave my ability to become involved in trying and hilarious situations to Betsy McIlheran plus a most treasured gift—our mutual old-maid friend!

I, FRANCES HARRIS, leave my naturally curly hair to Angela Davis so she'll never have to fool with "nightly pin-ups" again.

I, NANCY HOLLINGSWORTH, leave my ability to fall asleep to anyone who needs it.

I, MARILU HOLSTEIN, leave my fabulous week-end excursions to V.M.I. to Sue Whiteford in hope that she will come back with a "hulk" sometime soon; and my ability to "run the block" successfully, to Diane Perkins.

I, MARGERY HUDSON, leave my reserved seat in Churchill's to Nancy Cassidy and Bev Carter.

I, SUE JOHNSON, leave my ever-faithful grey flannel skirt to Polly Krampf.

I, CISSY KATTERJOHN, leave those lovely Sunday nights at 1313 Potomac Street to Mary Nauert.

I, SUSAN KERCKHOFF, leave my big toe to Sally Hurlbut in hopes that she'll take better care of it than she did the last one.

I, KATHY McCABE, leave my phone conversations and bills between D.C. and Clemson College to Dabney Thompson.

I. BETSY McINNIS, leave the Naval Academy behind—at last!

I, CISSY MAHON, leave "The Navy-U. Va. Week-end" and all the U. Va. boys to Jan Brinkerhoff.

I, SYLVIA MARSHALL, leave "our table" at Bolling Air Force Base and one Jack Rose to Trish Williams.

I, BARBARA NUTWELL, leave my seat at the Day Student telephone to Mary Latsey and Betsy Stevenson.

I, ROBERTA OWENS, leave my status as a five-day border to Mimi Hathaway, and my love for the state of Pennsylvania and my Yankee accent to Nicky Brusell.

I, PATRICIA PYLE, leave my "Green Dragon" to Jane Elmore in hopes that she has better luck than I have had.

I, DUCKY REDICK, leave my morning gallop to school on the "Green Hornet" to Margaret Gants.

I, CELINE SEAY, leave all the clothes I've outgrown to "Biguns".

I, MARY JANE SEFRIT, leave my need for the weed to Betsy McManus.

I, MIMI SHIELD, leave my travel troubles to Ann Pittman.

I, CORRINE SPEARS, leave my slim "figger" to Toby Taber.

I, CAROLYN SPRUIELL, will my blessed qualities of a quiet nature and reserved actions to Toby Taber in sincere hopes that wherever she goes she will use them to advantage of others.

I, GRAHAM STONE, leave my terrific dieting and dancing to Issy Mills.

I, JOAN TALLEY, will my job as Business Manager to ANYBODY!

I, JEAN TAYLOR, leave my deck of cards to Jane Smith in the hopes that she'll be able to get all her trumpets out.

I, VAL TOGNAZZINI, leave my German to Nicky, French songs to Roseline de Chollet, and photography to Mimi Latsey.

I, MADELINE TRASK, leave my skeleton face to Toby Taber in hopes that she will lose her nickname "Chipmunk."

I, RUTH TRASK, leave my progressive city of Myrtle Beach to Julie Stubbs in hopes she can help the Chamber of Commerce of Birmingham, Michigan, improve its village.

I, FRANNE TYRRELL, leave my bongo drums to Julie Stubbs in hopes that she won't drive her house as crazy as I have mine.

I, SUSAN VANDERBIE, leave my laundry bag full of dirty clothes to ANYONE.

I, BARBARA VINCENT, leave all my cake recipes to Margaret Gants and Gail Grimes.

I, CARLEEN VOGEL, leave my tennis shoes to Jan Brinkerhoff, and my kingsize Dixie cup to Susan Blocker to play John the Baptist with next year.

I, JULIE VON SCHRADER, leave, with sorrow, "Lu" to Julie Stubbs who I know will uphold the honorable name.

I, KACO WALSH, leave "Ode to a 'P.B.'" to anyone unfortunate enough to be suffering from "P.B." itis.

I, MARY JANE WARNER, leave my nickname to anyone who can fill the qualifications.

I, BETSY WATKINS, leave my trips to Texas on week-ends to Doralea Saunders.

I, JANE WEAVER, leave my tennis shoes to Phyllis James in exchange for her blue suede shoes.

I, KIM WHEELOCK, leave my seat on the bus to Annapolis to Anne McPherson, and to Susan Blocker the memories of that crazy cousin of hers.

I, CAROLE WILLETT, leave my "racey" days to Jane Robinson and Sue Straus in hopes that theirs will be put at an end, too.

I, JOAN WINGARD, leave my Zoology lab "animals" to Karen Gilmore and a membership card for the Elvis Presley fan club to Kate Hadow.

junior class officers

Colors: pink and silver.

Motto: "Wisdom is found only in truth."

CLASS SONG

In years to come we shall recall
Our class of '58.
These memories will linger on
While new ones we create.
Though paths we tread are far apart,
We'll carry deep within our heart
The thoughts of all the friends you've brought.
Mount Vernon hail to thee!

There's no house like our Post House,
Like no house that we know,
Everything about it is appealing,
Everything Miz Hannon will allow,
No where can you get that happy feeling,
As you go stealing out after twelve.
Thev're no girls like those Post girls,
They smile when they are low—
Mary heard from Johnny and it made her glad,
When one is happy—no one can be sad,
If you'd come and join up and let us be your host,
You'll find there's no house like our Post!

Refreshing...
Romantic...
Restful...

Dive right in: enjoy the refreshment of lavish fun-facilities — like this big fresh water swimming pool, heated in winter . . . like a jewel of a small golf course . . . a 400 foot pier . . . sailboats, a sports fishing cruiser. And relish the romantic lure of the Gulf itself . . . the warm, silky air . . . the natural beauty of the setting; the freedom and joy of this perfect vacation spot.

In the left corner we see graceful Franne,
Who believes that leotards will catch that man!
And to the right is little Miss Seay,
Who may look young (but how deceiving can one be?)!
Then we come to the girl with the voice,
Chester is her name and her singing is choice.
Next there is Mary, so sweet and dear;
Can you believe that she is getting married this year?
Then there is that blond who constantly eats;
Tell us, Jane, where do you hide all those sweets?
We are just five seniors from that house called Post—
Taking time out to wish you a "good luck" toast!

Cole House girls are ever so spry,
They assembled for this ad and don't ask me why—
Cause it was 9:00 A.M. on a rainy morn,
And we all ran down to the rec room of dorm.
Many bright, shiny faces are seen by all;
But at this early hour some aren't exactly on the ball.

Joy and spirit are the causes for gathering to give this ad,
For in June we leave one another;
And we will be so sad.
Our Cole House has been such a happy, congenial, and friendly place,
And we do wish to remember it with each glowing face...

POST HALL AND LIBRARY, newest addition to the campus, was dedicated on November 15, 1956 when Marjorie Merriweather Post '04, donor of the building, laid the cornerstone in a ceremony attended by members of the Board of Trustees, and alumnae association; faculty, students and several hundred guests.

Post Hall was erected by Mrs. Post in memory of her parents, the late Ella and C. W. Post. It includes a Great Hall and an extensive annex to the library.

THE NEW ACHESON SCIENCE HALL

ACHESON SCIENCE HALL is the gift of Margaret Acheson Stuart '16, in memory of her father, Dr. Edward Goodrich Acheson, distinguished and internationally eminent scientist.

Compliments of the Library

even school books can't teach you the value of a Venus de Milo or make an operatic solo more appealing than the "Tiger Rag."

It requires a sensitive, perceptive ear and eye to appreciate their quality.
But the history books will tell you that it is quality which survives
the acid test of time.

Like fine music and art,
fine printing will have a lasting appeal.
The discerning individual will recognize the quality of a PRIDEMARK product.
